

MAIN OFFICE FAREWELL

Before she left us on Thursday, 26th March, to devote more time to her domestic duties, Mrs. Pam Farrell was given a farewell "send-off" in the Main Office.

Pam, who was featured in our November, 1969 Potted Biographies, was one of our longest serving female staff members having started here in the Typing Section in January, 1959.

The picture shows her with other members of the Commercial Department typing section. From left:— Julie Lowe, Pam Rae, Sue Sharples, Mrs. Marj Harris, Mrs. Pam Farrell, Mrs. Jean Gibson, Jan Nickel, Mrs. Marilyn Musson, Mrs. Lyn McGeechan.

UNIVERSITY DEGREES CONFERRED ON SULPHIDE GRADUATES

A number of Sulphide graduates received their degrees at the annual Conferring of Degrees ceremony at the University of Newcastle on Friday, 20th March.

Those to receive degrees were:—

Alan Buchanan—Bachelor of Science (Engineering).

John Kentish—Bachelor of Commerce.

Leigh Neilson—Bachelor of Science (Technology) Department of Industrial Chemistry.

Malcolm Bowmaker — Bachelor of Science (Technology) Department of Metallurgy—Degree conferred since March 1969 ceremony.

Another to be honoured was Peter Shoobridge, who received a Diploma in Industrial Engineering.

Other graduates with Sulphide affiliations were Miss Margaret Moon (daughter of Chief Engineer, Ian Moon) — Bachelor of Arts (Psychology-Honours Class II, Division 1) and Gordon Dick (son of Acid Plant identity and S.E.U. Secretary Bert Dick) — Bachelor of Architecture, Congratulations all.