THE SUPERVISOR'S PRAYER

Dear Lord,

Help me to become the kind of supervisor my management would like to have me be.

Give me the mysterious some-thing which will enable me at all times satisfactorily to explain policies, rules, regulations and procedures to my workers even when they have never been explained to me.

Help me to teach and to train the uninterested and dim-witted without ever losing my patience or my temper.

Give me that love for my fellow men which passeth all understanding so that I may lead the recalcitrant, obstinate, no-good worker into the paths of righteousness by my own example, and by soft persuading remonstrance, instead of smashing him in the "chops".

Instil into my inner being tranquility and peace of mind so that no longer will I wake from my restless sleep in the middle of the night crying out "What has the boss got that I haven't got, and how did he get it."

Teach me to smile if it kills me.

Make me a better leader of men by helping develop larger and greater qualities of understanding, tolerance, sympathy, wisdom, perspective, equanimity, mind-reading and second-sight.
